EXECUTIVE SESSION:
Potential Litigation – Group Mercantile Licenses

Prior to going into Executive Session, Mayor Troiano asked John Davis to report his findings from inspecting the Boardwalk properties earlier in the day. Mr. Davis gave is report and said there are currently 9 operating Group Mercantile Licenses. Mr. Davis also reported there are a number of locations on the Boardwalk that are performing ear piercing without proper licensing, as well as performing hair wrapping and hair braiding. The Board of Commissioners listened to various Boardwalk property owners relative to Group Mercantile Licenses. Mayor Troiano said property owners have the right to apply to the Planning/Zoning Board for a Use Variance in an effort to be permitted to operate a Group Mercantile License at their particular locations. It was requested by the Boardwalk property owners to have the opportunity to sit with the Commissioners after the summer season to discuss changes on the Boardwalk over the years and determine if there would be any necessary changes to the local ordinances.

The Special Meeting was recessed at 5:00 p.m. by motion of Byron seconded by Leonetti. The City Clerk read the subject(s) to be discussed and Executive Resolution No. 10-8-15 convening the meeting.
