

- A. Resignation of Board Member - Ms. Carrie Williamson is stepping down from the Recreation Commission due to health issues and her inability to attend meetings. She will submit a resignation letter.

Nomination and appointment of Jeanne Kilian to fill the unexpired term of Carrie Williamson, which term expires 12/31/2018.

MOTION: McWade

SECOND: Phillips

All members present voted in the affirmative; there were no nays or abstentions.

Ms. Kilian previously worked for the City of Wildwood in the capacity of Planning & Zoning Secretary and is known to several of the board members. She will be invited to the next meeting to be sworn in.

- B. Dedication of Soccer Field – Mr. Troiano discussed naming the soccer field after Kate Anzelone, a local girl who lost her battle to Leukemia in the prime of her life. Her soccer team was the first to play on the field. The board makes a recommendation to the Wildwood Board of Commissioners to rename the soccer field “Kate Anzelone Field.”

MOTION: Bannon

SECOND: McWade

All members present voted in the affirmative; there were no nays or abstentions.

- C. Maxwell Field - Discussion was held on the state of the playground. It needs a good bit of work. The mulch is gone, there are no trash cans and the light poles need to be maintained. However, the playground equipment itself is in great shape. Mr. Bannon will discuss the light poles with Michael Blanda, the City electrician and Mr. Troiano will discuss the mulch and trash cans with Rich Hans.
